II. DECLARATION AND CERTIFICATION OF FINANCES (for international applicants seeking student visas* only)

At right are conservative estimates of the primary expenses associated with twelve months of full-time graduate study at Baruch’s School of Public Affairs. You must be able to document the availability of at least this amount. Tuition and fees are subject to change.

Estimated Expenses
Tuition	$7,600
Books, Supplies, Fees	400
Living Expenses	11,600
Total estimated annual expenses	$19,600

Students applying to continue in exchange programs (J-1 visas) are issued an IAP-66 rather than an I-20. These same forms (I and II) must be completed and documented as required for issuing the I-20.*

*Your total must be at least $19,600. If you are accompanied by your spouse, then your total must equal or exceed $25,600. If you are accompanied by your child(ren), then you must add $3,000 per child to your total. If you will be taking summer session courses, additional financial resources must be demonstrated.

Funding Sources Matrix

Indicate below the sources and annual amounts of your financial support. You must attach original documentation for each source and sign below where indicated. Your I-20* will be issued only after all required documentation is supplied.
