

Southwestern College of Christian Ministries

Campus Lifestyle Covenant

Southwestern College of Christian Ministries believes that as Jesus Christ becomes the center of the student's life, the student will commit himself/herself to a lifestyle which cultivates spiritual, ethical, physical, and academic growth.

As a student at SCCM and in affirmation of the above statement:

1. I have committed to the Lordship of Jesus Christ over every area of my life. This involves wholehearted obedience to the moral law of God and the willingness to develop and reflect Christian character and principles.
2. I will refrain from the use of profane language, tobacco, alcohol, illegal drugs, dishonesty, sexual promiscuity, and all forms of destructive conduct.
3. I agree to be responsible for my physical well-being. This includes eating properly, getting the proper rest, and maintaining proper hygiene and grooming habits.
4. I will accept the responsibility to attend all classes, required chapels, and other required college activities and will apply myself to study and be prudent in all academic matters.
5. I understand that it is my responsibility to become knowledgeable of and comply with all college policies and regulations as stated in the Student Handbook and catalog.
6. I will abide by all municipal, state, and federal laws.
7. I understand that my enrollment at SCCM constitutes a responsibility on my part to be amendable to the SCCM lifestyle at all times including semester and summer breaks. In addition I understand, whether I am residing in the dorm or a commuter student, my life is to remain above reproach. I will avoid even the appearance of evil as it applies to my life, and jeopardizing or compromising situations that may be construed as improper, immoral or un-Christian on or off the campus of SCCM. Failure on my part to consistently live the SCCM lifestyle may bring disciplinary action which could jeopardize my current and/or future enrollment at this college.

I have read the above Campus Lifestyle Statement and agree to abide by it.
